^{1/} Because the purpose of this Complaint is to set forth only those facts necessary to establish probable cause to arrest, I have not described all of the relevant facts and circumstances of which I am aware. In addition, when I rely on statements made by others, such statements are set forth in part and in substance unless otherwise indicated.

1. On or about January 26, 2007, the defendant LYNDA LATOYA HAMILTON was sentenced by Judge Henry E. During the disciplinary hearing process, on or about July 31, 2012, the defendant admitted to the charge and stated, in sum and substance, "Just send me back to jail. I'm tired of this." As the defendant walked out of the office, she asked if family members could retrieve her property.

4. At approximately 4:04 p.m. on July 31, 2012, the defendant LYNDA LATOYA HAMILTON approached the BRRRC Control Desk with two bags and continued to walk toward the exit of the facility. The Resident Monitor advised the defendant not to depart. The defendant ignored the Resident Monitor and left the facility. The defendant was not authorized to depart the premises. Therefore, the defendant was placed on escape status effective July 31, 2012 at 4:04 p.m.

5. As of this date, the defendant LYNDIA LATOYA HAMILTON has failed to return to the BRRC.
